

Miller & Rhoads. Miller & Rhoads.

New Draperies To-day Underpriced.

Just in this week. Short ends and Remnants that we bought ten days ago in New York under the regular prices for full pieces.

30c French Satin, 15c Yard.

One to six yards in each piece—30 inches wide—rich floral designs and fast colors—suitable for draperies or covering down comforters.

25c and 35c Figured Art Ticking, 15c Yard.

Thirty-six inches wide—all colors—pretty material for making all kinds of fancy bags or draperies.

Basement Specials To-day.

8c Umpire Cotton, 6 1-4c.

Eighteen hundred yards to start with to-day—all short pieces—6 to 20 yards long—those you can buy any amount you wish if its only half a yard. Full yard-wide with a soft finish. Same cotton in full pieces is worth 8c.

12-1-2c and 15c Silkoline Drapery, 8c Yard.

One and a half to six yards in each piece and all new designs this season—36 inches wide.

15c Denim, 10c Yard.

Ten pieces of it, pretty figured—36 inches wide. You can use it for covering furniture or it makes pretty summer portieres.

Thousand yards was all the jobber had, and we took it at a price low enough to sell for 8c, though it's actually an 8 1-2c. cloth.

Reports from the different States showed that the spirit of patriotism and energy animating their representatives.

Virginia is going to give a delightful excursion to Williamsburg Saturday, which will leave Richmond at 8 A. M.

return at 7:30 in the evening. Lunch at the very moderate price of 25 cents will be served by the ladies of Bruton Church. Mrs. Lyon Tyler, who is the president of the Daughters of the Confederacy at Williamsburg, will meet the excursionists on their arrival and show them points of interest in the colonial capital.

The season of the year will render the excursion more than usually delightful.

Williamsburg, with its beautiful old homes, its hospitable and elegant people, and its quaint old-world individuality, is always delightful. Among the ladies who will accompany the excursion are Mrs. Archer Anderson, Mrs. Taylor Beaufort, Mrs. Henry Harwood, Mrs. Frank Crump, Mrs. Thomas Bolling, Mrs. Charles B. Bolling, Mrs. J. R. V. Daniel, Mrs. J. G. Farland, Miss Lizzie Grattan and many others.

Alabama is to have a concert in Lee Camp Hall March 24th at 8:30 P. M.

when Miss Mamie Harrison will be assisted by the best Richmond talent. A musical for the benefit of the Solid South will be given March 25th in Barton Heights.

The Ladies of the Tennessee table will hold a "rummage sale" at No. 197 East Main Street during the week beginning March 30th. Contributions are solicited to be sent to Mrs. B. A. Biener, No. 517 North Taylor Street, St. Louis, Mo.

135 North Seventeenth Street, and Mrs. George A. Lyon, No. 614 East Grace Street.

Mrs. Wade gave a fine account of what had been done for the restaurant.

The restaurant will supply the tables with water during the bazaar. They have also donated a case of ginger ale. All the furniture to be used in the restaurant will be supplied by the firms of Ginsley and Hopkins.

Some consideration for the tables, will also be furnished. Street and Corkran, pork-packing merchants of Baltimore, have made a generous donation of their Orange brand of hams and bacon.

The Restaurant, Mrs. Richard Meade, Mrs. W. C. Cabell, Mrs. C. W. P. Brock, Mrs. Benjamin Nash, Mrs. James T. Parkinson, Mrs. Charles T. O'Ferrall, Mrs. Robert Scott Chamberlayne, Mrs. C. F. Snow, Mrs. Grymes, Mrs. Dillard, Mrs. W. C. Meade, Mrs. Richard Meade, Mrs. W. C. Cabell, Mrs. Preston Nash, Mrs. Mary Norwood, Mrs. B. C. Nelson, Mrs. Billups, Misses Mary Florence, Virginia Tyler, Josephine Tyler, Daisy Chamberlayne, Julia Grant, the Glasgow Ladies' Aid Society, Mrs. Joseph B. Coleman, Virginia Miller, Edna Shriver, Sara M. Baughman, Margie Graves, Ellen Jones, Mary Garnett, Nannie Jones, Edna Holmes, Elizabeth Bentley, Doris Jones, Edna Bowe, Edna Porter, Mrs. Randolph Lathrop, Miss Graham, Miss Jones, Miss Aleck, Misses Meade and Mrs. Brockenbrough.

The Lone Star.

The Lone Star Texas table design is one of the happy hits made by Mr. Kelly.

The Lone Star forms its apex, and will be radiant when each point scintillates with electric light, as is intended. The roof itself is a star with turned poles, and the lattice work below is formed of interwoven stars.

The chairman of the Texas table is Mrs. S. D. Drewry, a sister of Mrs. Mollie Macgill Rosenbergs, of Galveston, known for her devotion to the cause of the lattice work throughout Texas. Associated with Mrs. Drewry are a number of earnest helpers. It is hoped and believed by them that with the support they are looking for from the State, the Texas table will be second to none at the bazaar.

Women's Meetings.

The Entertainment Committee will meet at No. 92 West Franklin Street next Saturday at noon.

Donation day for the Belle Bryan Nursery and Kindergarten is appointed for Friday, March 20th.

The building will be open to visitors throughout the day, and ladies from the board will be present to welcome those who come.

The chairman of the Missouri table calls a meeting of her committee for Friday, March 20th, at 12 o'clock. The meeting will be held at No. 409 East Franklin Street. A full attendance is desired, as there are several matters of importance to be considered.

The regular meeting of the Commonwealth Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will be held at No. 813 West Franklin Street on Saturday, March 21st.

At 12 o'clock. A large and prompt attendance is desired.

The committee of the Mississippi table will meet Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at No. 215 East Third Street. The chairman urges that all members will be present.

The Bostock Benefit.

The Bostock Benefit yesterday for the benefit of the Bostock Association, was a success from beginning to end, and every one interested in it, children most of all, came home happy and satisfied.

The judges in the afternoon were in place promptly. Miss Anne Lee and Miss Mary Curtis Lee assisted General Fitzhugh Lee and sat near him on the stand. The other judges, Captain Featherstone and Judge George Christian, were promptly in place, as were Misses Verth, Walther and Bostock.

Fifty of the children who were reviewed by the judges were given the red ribbon. Then the fifty came into the arena, were grouped, and had their pictures taken with the judges. Afterward the final selection gave the cups to Miss Eva Bevelidge, the three-and-a-half-year-old daughter of Mr. W. H. Bevelidge, Jr., of No. 507 West Clay Street, and to Master Courtney Warren, David, Jr., of No. 101 West Fifth Street, the son of Mrs. James H. Harris, of No. 17 North Fifth Street. The presentation of the cups was attended with the greatest interest, and photographing was carried on all around.

The crowd last night was greater than that of the afternoon, every one pouring in to see the baby gorilla, Orin, receive his name and be introduced officially to the audience. This season, none has proved more fortunate than that for the benefit of the bazaar.

At the Jefferson Club.

The readings given by Miss Aunspach last afternoon at the Jefferson Club, from the poems of the tables, the poet laureate of childhood and motherhood. The reader prefaced her reading with some account of Eugene Field as a man, giving the index to his writings from the great versatility and nobility of his character, and his disposition. The poems were taken from poems of sentiment, from lullabies in which Field excels most other poets; from poems of pathos, and by contrast, from merry, rollicking nursery rhymes, showing the full scope and power of the poet in his conception and expression.

Professor Mitchell, of Richmond College, will give a lecture this evening at 8:30 in the auditorium of the Woman's Club. The subject of the lecture will be "Altruism," and the lecture will be given under the auspices of the Ladies' Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church. No one who has ever heard Professor Mitchell will be inclined to neglect the opportunity of hearing him again, and, as he is well known in Richmond, the delightful attraction of lecturer and theme will doubtless draw a large audience.

Personal Mention.

The Colonial Dames held a burial meeting in the home of Mrs. H. A. Claiborne, on West Grace Street, last afternoon. Mrs. Claiborne has called a meeting of the Executive Committee of the National Society of Dames to meet in Washington next Monday.

This committee is composed of the presidents of the different State societies, and will doubtless transact important work in Washington.

Mrs. Lela O. Busley will be absent from the city for two weeks, visiting Williamsburg, Old Point, Newport News, Hampton and Norfolk. When she returns she will not be at the Valentine House.

Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Stierding, who have been making a tour of Florida, are at home again.

THROWS A BOMB INTO THE CAMP

Nephew of Dr. A. E. Dickinson Causes Some Stir in Baptist Denomination.

Some considerable stir has been created in the Baptist denomination in the South by the Rev. A. J. Dickinson, D. D., of Selma, Ala., a nephew of Dr. A. E. Dickinson, of this city, who has come out declaring that it is not the duty of the denomination to conduct educational enterprises.

In view of the great importance attached here to the educational feature of the church work, the publication has attracted no little attention. The religious Herald, of which Dr. Dickinson is the senior editor, refers to the matter this week in the following words: Dr. A. J. Dickinson, of Alabama, has thrown a small dynamite bomb into the camp. In a recent article published in the Southern Baptist, he argues, with considerable ingenuity, that it is not the duty of a denomination to conduct educational enterprises. At least, that is what we understand him to hold and teach. That "graves" down to the bottom. The issue he makes is a bold one, and one not only we supposed it had been settled long ago.

Dr. Dickinson is now pastor of a prominent Baptist Church in Selma, Ala. He is well known in this city.

Whitehead Hill.

The bill offered by Hon. John Whitehead, of Norfolk, to require stationary engineers to stand examination before being licensed, was taken up by the House Committee on Manufactures and Mechanic Arts at 8 o'clock to-night in the hall of the House of Delegates.

Judge Tucker Here.

Judge J. Ran. Tucker, Jr., of Bedford City, but formerly of this city, and law partner of Judge John H. Ingram, is in the city, and was warmly greeted by his many friends at the Capitol yesterday.

HALF RATES TO FLORIDA

For Settlers and Home-Seekers via the Seaboard Air Line Railway.

Beginning Tuesday, March 24th, and every Tuesday thereafter in March and April, the Seaboard Air Line Railway will sell settlers and home-seekers tickets to Manatee, Bradenton and Ellenton, in Manatee county, Florida, for $15.00 one way and $25.00 round trip from Richmond, and for $15.00 one way and $25.00 round trip from York, Pa.

Manatee county is the most fertile section of Florida. It is on the west coast, well below the frost line, and thousands of acres of the best unoccupied lands sell for $5.00 to $10.00 per acre. They will pay for themselves many times the first year.

In 1902 one acre netted $1,528.75 in early vegetables. Thirty acres of celery brought $26,750.00.

It is the healthiest in Florida and the climate delightful.

The tarpon fishing off this coast, in Saratoga Bay, is the finest in the world. For information apply to Z. P. Smith, district passenger agent, Richmond, Va.; Henry Whyte, agent, Petersburg, Va.; or Charles B. Ryan, general passenger agent, Portsmouth, Va.

21st, at 12 o'clock. A large and prompt attendance is desired.

The committee of the Mississippi table will meet Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at No. 215 East Third Street. The chairman urges that all members will be present.

The Bostock Benefit.

The Bostock Benefit yesterday for the benefit of the Bostock Association, was a success from beginning to end, and every one interested in it, children most of all, came home happy and satisfied.

The judges in the afternoon were in place promptly. Miss Anne Lee and Miss Mary Curtis Lee assisted General Fitzhugh Lee and sat near him on the stand. The other judges, Captain Featherstone and Judge George Christian, were promptly in place, as were Misses Verth, Walther and Bostock.

Fifty of the children who were reviewed by the judges were given the red ribbon. Then the fifty came into the arena, were grouped, and had their pictures taken with the judges. Afterward the final selection gave the cups to Miss Eva Bevelidge, the three-and-a-half-year-old daughter of Mr. W. H. Bevelidge, Jr., of No. 507 West Clay Street, and to Master Courtney Warren, David, Jr., of No. 101 West Fifth Street, the son of Mrs. James H. Harris, of No. 17 North Fifth Street. The presentation of the cups was attended with the greatest interest, and photographing was carried on all around.

The crowd last night was greater than that of the afternoon, every one pouring in to see the baby gorilla, Orin, receive his name and be introduced officially to the audience. This season, none has proved more fortunate than that for the benefit of the bazaar.

At the Jefferson Club.

The readings given by Miss Aunspach last afternoon at the Jefferson Club, from the poems of the tables, the poet laureate of childhood and motherhood. The reader prefaced her reading with some account of Eugene Field as a man, giving the index to his writings from the great versatility and nobility of his character, and his disposition. The poems were taken from poems of sentiment, from lullabies in which Field excels most other poets; from poems of pathos, and by contrast, from merry, rollicking nursery rhymes, showing the full scope and power of the poet in his conception and expression.

Professor Mitchell, of Richmond College, will give a lecture this evening at 8:30 in the auditorium of the Woman's Club. The subject of the lecture will be "Altruism," and the lecture will be given under the auspices of the Ladies' Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church. No one who has ever heard Professor Mitchell will be inclined to neglect the opportunity of hearing him again, and, as he is well known in Richmond, the delightful attraction of lecturer and theme will doubtless draw a large audience.

Personal Mention.

The Colonial Dames held a burial meeting in the home of Mrs. H. A. Claiborne, on West Grace Street, last afternoon. Mrs. Claiborne has called a meeting of the Executive Committee of the National Society of Dames to meet in Washington next Monday.

This committee is composed of the presidents of the different State societies, and will doubtless transact important work in Washington.

Mrs. Lela O. Busley will be absent from the city for two weeks, visiting Williamsburg, Old Point, Newport News, Hampton and Norfolk. When she returns she will not be at the Valentine House.

Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Stierding, who have been making a tour of Florida, are at home again.

THROWS A BOMB INTO THE CAMP

Nephew of Dr. A. E. Dickinson Causes Some Stir in Baptist Denomination.

Some considerable stir has been created in the Baptist denomination in the South by the Rev. A. J. Dickinson, D. D., of Selma, Ala., a nephew of Dr. A. E. Dickinson, of this city, who has come out declaring that it is not the duty of the denomination to conduct educational enterprises.

In view of the great importance attached here to the educational feature of the church work, the publication has attracted no little attention. The religious Herald, of which Dr. Dickinson is the senior editor, refers to the matter this week in the following words: Dr. A. J. Dickinson, of Alabama, has thrown a small dynamite bomb into the camp. In a recent article published in the Southern Baptist, he argues, with considerable ingenuity, that it is not the duty of a denomination to conduct educational enterprises. At least, that is what we understand him to hold and teach. That "graves" down to the bottom. The issue he makes is a bold one, and one not only we supposed it had been settled long ago.

Dr. Dickinson is now pastor of a prominent Baptist Church in Selma, Ala. He is well known in this city.

Whitehead Hill.

The bill offered by Hon. John Whitehead, of Norfolk, to require stationary engineers to stand examination before being licensed, was taken up by the House Committee on Manufactures and Mechanic Arts at 8 o'clock to-night in the hall of the House of Delegates.

Judge Tucker Here.

Judge J. Ran. Tucker, Jr., of Bedford City, but formerly of this city, and law partner of Judge John H. Ingram, is in the city, and was warmly greeted by his many friends at the Capitol yesterday.

HALF RATES TO FLORIDA

For Settlers and Home-Seekers via the Seaboard Air Line Railway.

Beginning Tuesday, March 24th, and every Tuesday thereafter in March and April, the Seaboard Air Line Railway will sell settlers and home-seekers tickets to Manatee, Bradenton and Ellenton, in Manatee county, Florida, for $15.00 one way and $25.00 round trip from Richmond, and for $15.00 one way and $25.00 round trip from York, Pa.

Manatee county is the most fertile section of Florida. It is on the west coast, well below the frost line, and thousands of acres of the best unoccupied lands sell for $5.00 to $10.00 per acre. They will pay for themselves many times the first year.

In 1902 one acre netted $1,528.75 in early vegetables. Thirty acres of celery brought $26,750.00.

It is the healthiest in Florida and the climate delightful.

The tarpon fishing off this coast, in Saratoga Bay, is the finest in the world. For information apply to Z. P. Smith, district passenger agent, Richmond, Va.; Henry Whyte, agent, Petersburg, Va.; or Charles B. Ryan, general passenger agent, Portsmouth, Va.

21st, at 12 o'clock. A large and prompt attendance is desired.

The committee of the Mississippi table will meet Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at No. 215 East Third Street. The chairman urges that all members will be present.

The Bostock Benefit.

The Bostock Benefit yesterday for the benefit of the Bostock Association, was a success from beginning to end, and every one interested in it, children most of all, came home happy and satisfied.

The judges in the afternoon were in place promptly. Miss Anne Lee and Miss Mary Curtis Lee assisted General Fitzhugh Lee and sat near him on the stand. The other judges, Captain Featherstone and Judge George Christian, were promptly in place, as were Misses Verth, Walther and Bostock.

Fifty of the children who were reviewed by the judges were given the red ribbon. Then the fifty came into the arena, were grouped, and had their pictures taken with the judges. Afterward the final selection gave the cups to Miss Eva Bevelidge, the three-and-a-half-year-old daughter of Mr. W. H. Bevelidge, Jr., of No. 507 West Clay Street, and to Master Courtney Warren, David, Jr., of No. 101 West Fifth Street, the son of Mrs. James H. Harris, of No. 17 North Fifth Street. The presentation of the cups was attended with the greatest interest, and photographing was carried on all around.

The crowd last night was greater than that of the afternoon, every one pouring in to see the baby gorilla, Orin, receive his name and be introduced officially to the audience. This season, none has proved more fortunate than that for the benefit of the bazaar.

At the Jefferson Club.

The readings given by Miss Aunspach last afternoon at the Jefferson Club, from the poems of the tables, the poet laureate of childhood and motherhood. The reader prefaced her reading with some account of Eugene Field as a man, giving the index to his writings from the great versatility and nobility of his character, and his disposition. The poems were taken from poems of sentiment, from lullabies in which Field excels most other poets; from poems of pathos, and by contrast, from merry, rollicking nursery rhymes, showing the full scope and power of the poet in his conception and expression.

Professor Mitchell, of Richmond College, will give a lecture this evening at 8:30 in the auditorium of the Woman's Club. The subject of the lecture will be "Altruism," and the lecture will be given under the auspices of the Ladies' Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church. No one who has ever heard Professor Mitchell will be inclined to neglect the opportunity of hearing him again, and, as he is well known in Richmond, the delightful attraction of lecturer and theme will doubtless draw a large audience.

Personal Mention.

The Colonial Dames held a burial meeting in the home of Mrs. H. A. Claiborne, on West Grace Street, last afternoon. Mrs. Claiborne has called a meeting of the Executive Committee of the National Society of Dames to meet in Washington next Monday.

This committee is composed of the presidents of the different State societies, and will doubtless transact important work in Washington.

Mrs. Lela O. Busley will be absent from the city for two weeks, visiting Williamsburg, Old Point, Newport News, Hampton and Norfolk. When she returns she will not be at the Valentine House.

Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Stierding, who have been making a tour of Florida, are at home again.

THROWS A BOMB INTO THE CAMP

Nephew of Dr. A. E. Dickinson Causes Some Stir in Baptist Denomination.

Some considerable stir has been created in the Baptist denomination in the South by the Rev. A. J. Dickinson, D. D., of Selma, Ala., a nephew of Dr. A. E. Dickinson, of this city, who has come out declaring that it is not the duty of the denomination to conduct educational enterprises.

In view of the great importance attached here to the educational feature of the church work, the publication has attracted no little attention. The religious Herald, of which Dr. Dickinson is the senior editor, refers to the matter this week in the following words: Dr. A. J. Dickinson, of Alabama, has thrown a small dynamite bomb into the camp. In a recent article published in the Southern Baptist, he argues, with considerable ingenuity, that it is not the duty of a denomination to conduct educational enterprises. At least, that is what we understand him to hold and teach. That "graves" down to the bottom. The issue he makes is a bold one, and one not only we supposed it had been settled long ago.

Dr. Dickinson is now pastor of a prominent Baptist Church in Selma, Ala. He is well known in this city.

Whitehead Hill.

The bill offered by Hon. John Whitehead, of Norfolk, to require stationary engineers to stand examination before being licensed, was taken up by the House Committee on Manufactures and Mechanic Arts at 8 o'clock to-night in the hall of the House of Delegates.

Judge Tucker Here.

Judge J. Ran. Tucker, Jr., of Bedford City, but formerly of this city, and law partner of Judge John H. Ingram, is in the city, and was warmly greeted by his many friends at the Capitol yesterday.

HALF RATES TO FLORIDA

For Settlers and Home-Seekers via the Seaboard Air Line Railway.

Beginning Tuesday, March 24th, and every Tuesday thereafter in March and April, the Seaboard Air Line Railway will sell settlers and home-seekers tickets to Manatee, Bradenton and Ellenton, in Manatee county, Florida, for $15.00 one way and $25.00 round trip from Richmond, and for $15.00 one way and $25.00 round trip from York, Pa.

Manatee county is the most fertile section of Florida. It is on the west coast, well below the frost line, and thousands of acres of the best unoccupied lands sell for $5.00 to $10.00 per acre. They will pay for themselves many times the first year.

In 1902 one acre netted $1,528.75 in early vegetables. Thirty acres of celery brought $26,750.00.

It is the healthiest in Florida and the climate delightful.

The tarpon fishing off this coast, in Saratoga Bay, is the finest in the world. For information apply to Z. P. Smith, district passenger agent, Richmond, Va.; Henry Whyte, agent, Petersburg, Va.; or Charles B. Ryan, general passenger agent, Portsmouth, Va.

21st, at 12 o'clock. A large and prompt attendance is desired.

The committee of the Mississippi table will meet Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at No. 215 East Third Street. The chairman urges that all members will be present.

The Bostock Benefit.

The Bostock Benefit yesterday for the benefit of the Bostock Association, was a success from beginning to end, and every one interested in it, children most of all, came home happy and satisfied.

The judges in the afternoon were in place promptly. Miss Anne Lee and Miss Mary Curtis Lee assisted General Fitzhugh Lee and sat near him on the stand. The other judges, Captain Featherstone and Judge George Christian, were promptly in place, as were Misses Verth, Walther and Bostock.

Fifty of the children who were reviewed by the judges were given the red ribbon. Then the fifty came into the arena, were grouped, and had their pictures taken with the judges. Afterward the final selection gave the cups to Miss Eva Bevelidge, the three-and-a-half-year-old daughter of Mr. W. H. Bevelidge, Jr., of No. 507 West Clay Street, and to Master Courtney Warren, David, Jr., of No. 101 West Fifth Street, the son of Mrs. James H. Harris, of No. 17 North Fifth Street. The presentation of the cups was attended with the greatest interest, and photographing was carried on all around.

The crowd last night was greater than that of the afternoon, every one pouring in to see the baby gorilla, Orin, receive his name and be introduced officially to the audience. This season, none has proved more fortunate than that for the benefit of the bazaar.

At the Jefferson Club.

The readings given by Miss Aunspach last afternoon at the Jefferson Club, from the poems of the tables, the poet laureate of childhood and motherhood. The reader prefaced her reading with some account of Eugene Field as a man, giving the index to his writings from the great versatility and nobility of his character, and his disposition. The poems were taken from poems of sentiment, from lullabies in which Field excels most other poets; from poems of pathos, and by contrast, from merry, rollicking nursery rhymes, showing the full scope and power of the poet in his conception and expression.

Professor Mitchell, of Richmond College, will give a lecture this evening at 8:30 in the auditorium of the Woman's Club. The subject of the lecture will be "Altruism," and the lecture will be given under the auspices of the Ladies' Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church. No one who has ever heard Professor Mitchell will be inclined to neglect the opportunity of hearing him again, and, as he is well known in Richmond, the delightful attraction of lecturer and theme will doubtless draw a large audience.

Personal Mention.

The Colonial Dames held a burial meeting in the home of Mrs. H. A. Claiborne, on West Grace Street, last afternoon. Mrs. Claiborne has called a meeting of the Executive Committee of the National Society of Dames to meet in Washington next Monday.

This committee is composed of the presidents of the different State societies, and will doubtless transact important work in Washington.

Mrs. Lela O. Busley will be absent from the city for two weeks, visiting Williamsburg, Old Point, Newport News, Hampton and Norfolk. When she returns she will not be at the Valentine House.

Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Stierding, who have been making a tour of Florida, are at home again.

THROWS A BOMB INTO THE CAMP

Nephew of Dr. A. E. Dickinson Causes Some Stir in Baptist Denomination.

Some considerable stir has been created in the Baptist denomination in the South by the Rev. A. J. Dickinson, D. D., of Selma, Ala., a nephew of Dr. A. E. Dickinson, of this city, who has come out declaring that it is not the duty of the denomination to conduct educational enterprises.

In view of the great importance attached here to the educational feature of the church work, the publication has attracted no little attention. The religious Herald, of which Dr. Dickinson is the senior editor, refers to the matter this week in the following words: Dr. A. J. Dickinson, of Alabama, has thrown a small dynamite bomb into the camp. In a recent article published in the Southern Baptist, he argues, with considerable ingenuity, that it is not the duty of a denomination to conduct educational enterprises. At least, that is what we understand him to hold and teach. That "graves" down to the bottom. The issue he makes is a bold one, and one not only we supposed it had been settled long ago.

Dr. Dickinson is now pastor of a prominent Baptist Church in Selma, Ala. He is well known in this city.

Whitehead Hill.

The bill offered by Hon. John Whitehead, of Norfolk, to require stationary engineers to stand examination before being licensed, was taken up by the House Committee on Manufactures and Mechanic Arts at 8 o'clock to-night in the hall of the House of Delegates.

Judge Tucker Here.

Judge J. Ran. Tucker, Jr., of Bedford City, but formerly of this city, and law partner of Judge John H. Ingram, is in the city, and was warmly greeted by his many friends at the Capitol yesterday.